CALL FOR APPLICATION

Under the aegis of the Galien Foundation, Galien Africa is launching a call for applications for the "Prix GalienAfrica" which rewards excellence and innovation. It is awarded for products, services and initiatives that are highly convincing or promising in the field of innovative discoveries and therapies for the benefit of humanity.

It aims to reward researchers, institutions and pharmaceutical industries from the public or private sector that have successfully developed initiatives, services, pharmaceutical, biotechnological, phytotherapy, diagnostic products and medical devices recently introduced on the African market. The "Prix GalienAfrica" rewards pharmaceutical and phytotherapy sciences that improve the human condition, mainly on the basis of two criteria:

- Innovation and/or discovery
- Impact on the African continent.

In applying for one of the prizes below, the applicant agrees with the provisions of the "Prix Galien Africa" Charter, which is available and can be downloaded from the website: www.prixgalienafrique.com.

The prize categories to be awarded are:

- the best pharmaceutical product,
- the best traditherapy product,
- the best biotechnology product,
- the best medical technology (medical device, diagnosis).
